

No, if you are paying the extra fee to receive such programming that should be covered under the 1st ammendment, and as a basic in the FREE ENTERPRISE SYSTEM. With new technology and scrambling and descrambling everyone should have the choice of locking it out or unlocking it.